

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Dear TekNat people,

We are happy to announce that registration to the upcoming Graduate Course on Science Communiation and Outreach is now OPEN! The course will take place at BMC/Navet from 28-30th of May 9-17h. This course is free of charge but no-shows will be charged a penalty fee for eventual associated costs.

This course is organised into lectures and practical session, together with some work to be done beforehand. Students at Uppsala University will get 2hp for the successful participation (assignments + attendance). Places are limited and TekNat PhD students have currently preferential admission till 15th of March but other participants are welcome to apply, so share this with anybody you think might be interested!

Hope this course is interesting for many of you.

More info and registration here: www.scicommcourse.info

Do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Eva Garmendia (UAC/IMBIM) and Hugo Gutiérrez de Terán (ICM)
