

This is just a screenshot from the website -
click anywhere on the page to actually get there!

STIFTELSEN EXTENSUS

På Svenska

Start

Projects

The board

Application 2018

Information to applicants

The Foundation Extensus, Uppsala yearly announces research grants in ecological botany, mainly in the below prioritised disciplines. Note! Maximum of 40 000 SEK per application.

Funds may be granted for research including, equipment, travel costs and costs for publication. Report on how grants have been used, including receipts, should be given no later than June 30 the following year.

- A. Plant ecological research, particularly concerning primeval forest and related conservation issues.*
- B. Research concerning deciduous tree ecology, in particular regeneration and geographical distribution as well as speciation questions.*
- C. Research dealing with wetland ecology and conservation, in particular periodically flooded wetlands along river Dalälven.*

Instructions to applicant:

Applications should be sent to Stiftelsen Extensus not later than 31 March 2018.

The application should include project description, information on earlier results, budget, CV and information on whether funding is applied for and/or received from other sources.

The application should include contact information, and may comprise maximum three pages, plus curriculum vitae maximum two pages, all information in one file.

The application should be:

*Vedön, Gysinge
Foto Jerry Skoglund*

*Fiby urskog
Foto Jerry Skoglund*